

Thank you for choosing British Council as your IELTS test centre.

If you have decided on a test date on which to take your IELTS test, you can pay the IELTS test fee of Php 10,270.00 through a bank deposit at our Banco de Oro account.

Below are the bank details you will need in completing the Banco de Oro cash deposit slip:

Account Name: Citibank FAO British Council

Account No: 1380194898

Type: Savings Account

Please ensure that we receive the exact test fee. You will need to shoulder other possible bank charges that you might incur for the bank transaction.

Please ask the teller to include your name on the bank deposit slip for it to appear when validated. After the teller has validated your deposit slip, please write down your preferred test date and location on the deposit slip for our reference.

Bank deposit transactions take five (5) days to process – three (3) days for the bank to verify the payment, and one (1) to two (2) days for us to process the documents.

To register, you need to register through our IELTS Online Registration and Payment System (IORPS), and then choose offline payment for bank transaction payment.

You will receive an acknowledgement receipt and confirmation letter through the e-mail you indicated on your online account five (5) working days after you have successfully uploaded your payment. You will receive your official receipt on your test day.

If you have further enquiries, please e-mail us at britishcouncil@britishcouncil.org.ph or calls us at +63 2 555 3000.
