IELTS

IELTS from the British Council

IELTS – the test that opens doors throughout the world

The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is the world's most popular English language proficiency test for higher education and global migration, with millions of IELTS tests taken each year.

IELTS is trusted by over 11,000 organisations, including universities, professional bodies, employers and migration authorities.

UK - Live, work and study in the UK with IELTS. IELTS is the most widely - accepted English language test by the UK universities and government offices.

USA - Among the universities in the US, 95 % undergraduate programmes and 99 % postgraduate programmes accept IELTS.

Canada - Whether you are going to Canada for study, applying for a work visa, a professional registration or permanent residency, you can prove your English proficiency with IELTS.

Australasia - With IELTS you can be confident that you are taking a test that is accepted by all universities colleges and every professional association in both Australia and New Zealand.

Philippines - Many universities and companies in the Philippines accept IELTS as evidence of English language proficiency.

Other Countries - Many programmes taught in English in European universities and colleges accept and trust IELTS.

About IELTS

IELTS is a test that measures the language proficiency of those who want to study or work in environments where English is used as a language of communication. There are two modules to choose from: IELTS Academic and IELTS General Training.

IELTS Academic

- To study at the undergraduate or postgraduate level.
- To join a professional organisation or registration in an English - speaking country.

IELTS General Training

- To work or undertake work - related training in an English - speaking country.
- To immigrate to an English - speaking country.
- To study or train at below degree level.

Each organisation sets its own entry requirements. In some cases, both the Academic and General Training module may be accepted. If you are in doubt as to which module to take, you should contact the organisation to which you are applying to confirm their requirements.

IELTS for UKVI

IELTS for UKVI is a UK government - approved Secure English Language Test (SELT). This means that IELTS can be used to prove your English language abilities in support of a UK Visa and Immigration (UKVI) application.

To find out whether you need to take an approved SELT test, what level you need to achieve and which test you can use, please visit www.ieltsasia.org/ph/study-in-uk/ukvi

The IELTS test format

The actual test taken is the same for both IELTS and IELTS for UKVI, with the same content, examiners, format, level of difficulty, scoring and so on. The only difference between the two is that IELTS for UKVI is administered in a test venue with video recording and CCTV facilities.

Listening

(Time: 30 minutes, plus 10 minute extra to transfer your answer to the sheet in IELTS on paper)

There are four sections, which include both monologues and conversations. A variety of voices and accents are used and each section is played only once.

Reading

(Time: 60 minutes)

Academic

There are three long reading passages with tasks. Texts range from descriptive and factual to the discursive and analytical and may include non-verbal material such as diagrams, graphs or illustrations.

General Training

There are three reading passages with tasks. Section 1 contains two or three short factual texts. Section 2 contains two short, work-related, factual texts. Section 3 contains one longer text on a topic of general interest.

Speaking

(Time: 11 - 14 minutes)

A face-to-face interview comprised of three sections: short questions, speaking at length about a familiar topic and a structured discussion.

The Speaking test in IELTS on Computer is scheduled in the same day as your written test. It may be taken in the morning or in the afternoon and may either be delivered in-person or through video call.

Writing

(Time: 60 minutes)

Academic

There are two tasks in total. In Task 1, you are presented with a table, graph, chart or diagram and are asked to describe, summarise or explain the information in no less than 150 words. In Task 2, you are asked to write an essay of no less than 250 words in response to a point of view, argument or problem.

General Training

There are two tasks. In Task 1, you are presented with a situation and are asked to write a letter of at least 150 words to request information or explain the situation. In Task 2, you are asked to write an essay of no less than 250 words in response to a point of view, argument or problem.

What is IELTS on Computer?

We are continually enhancing IELTS – the world's most popular test of English for higher education and global migration – to improve the experience of IELTS for our test takers and stakeholders.
